

Worksheet 5: Perspectives

Complete each concept or approach by inserting the missing words.

1 Functionalism

Functionalism is a _____ approach. Society is united by _____, meaning shared norms and _____. Society is made up of _____ such as the family. Functionalists use the _____ to describe how society works.

social value analogy values consensus biological institutions consensus

2 Marxism

Marxism is a _____ approach. _____ is an economic system that Marxists see as creating _____. The wealthy _____ own the _____ of _____ and are able to _____ the _____.

means proletariat inequality conflict exploit bourgeoisie Capitalism production

3 Feminism

Feminism is a _____ approach. Feminists focus on _____ in society. They see society as _____, meaning based on male domination. There are three main feminist views _____, _____ and _____. All see society as _____ women.

gender conflict Marxist patriarchal liberal radical oppressing inequality

4 Interactionist perspectives

These perspectives include _____ and _____ theory. Interactionists focus on _____. People are able to _____ interactions and act accordingly. _____ theory looks at how the action of others affect behaviour. Being given a _____ can lead to a _____.

self-fulfilling social interpret meanings inequality prophecy Labelling symbolic label interactionism